Our Christmas program will be presented at 10:30 a. m. taking the place of the Sunday School and the morning service. The children are being trained by a competent committee. We urgently request the parents of the children to be present.

Don't forget the date of the protracted meeting-January 4, 1914. The services until then will continue as they have been for several weeks past, to be preparatory for the meeting. Do not miss a single one. They will help you spiritually. We wish you to be ready to do the best work of your life for God and humanity. You can't do this, if you are a cold and half-hearted Christian. member that God, the senior partner in saving men, is wise in counsel, mighty in power and matchless in love. "Christ the Child lover and the first Christmas Day," will be the subject of discourse at 11 a. m.

The young people will be given the entire evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock, for discussion of the subject "If I had $10,000 to be given away what would I do with it?" wer you also will be given opportunity to tell what you know of greatest human needs. Mr. Fuhr is to be leader and Mrs. Ormand Hami lton will make the opening prayer.

"What shall I get?" The other, "What shall I give?" Both classes are invited, and also the man with a brain between his ears and a heart somewhere under his left shoulder, -in fact whosoever will may come,

Mr. Francis Backe writes that he will return from Bethany College at the weeks end and he has consented to sing Sunday night,

All in the audience were pleased as well as the speaker when the young people marched in a body to the front rows of seats in the church last Sunday night. A finer bunch of young people is seldom found even in the large congregations of the cities is vouched for by one who

Supt. Ralph Smith and the S. S. Secretary Beulah Marshall ably aided by others are training the children and in every way getting things in fine shape for the best Christmas celebration yet, on Christmas eve.

Now don't forget the $10,000 meeting Sunday night.

PROFITABLE DAILY TITHING.

"Daily Heavenly Manna." This little book is having the largest circulation of any of its kind and is conceded by Christians everywhere to be the most helpful.

If Christians allow the rush and rrush of selfish ambition to deprive them of their dally portion of heavenly food, they must not be surprised if they grow spiritually leaner day by day, and if the peace of God gives place in their hearts to the discontent which is growing in the world, notwithstanding the multiplication of our comforts and privileges.

Daily Hearenly Manna contains a colfection of Scripture texts with appropriate quotations for every day in the year. Surely the little tithe of time daily spent in partaking of its morsels of heavenly counsel cannot fail to profit all who partake. It is published to do good-not for profit.

Your Friends' Birth Dates. An autograph and birthday record feature in this book is a grew conventence. Opposite each day of the year are blank lines upon which you can secure the autographs of your friends and be reminded of their birthdays as they occur. This makes the book more valuable yearly. In ten years you would not sell it for ten dollars.

Besides it has a place for Birth Records, Marriage Records and Death Records. Also it has a table showing the hundred and fifty years.
